

The Lovin' Feeling is back – The Righteous Brothers LIVE!

The Rock and Roll Hall of Fame duo of Bill Medley and Bobby Hatfield topped the charts for decades. Blue-eyed soul pioneers of the 60's, The Righteous Brothers, will be performing a string of number one classics including Unchained Melody, Rock & Roll Heaven, The Great Pretender, Georgia on My Mind and the most played song on radio history (even surpassing the Beatles), You've Lost That Lovin' Feeling.

We will be taking a Huntsville group to the beautiful historic Tivoli Theatre in Chattanooga on Saturday, September 14th for the show. We will board the motorcoach at noon from Mayfair Church – 1095 Carl T. Jones Dr., travel to Ft. Payne, AL to tour the castle home of Jeff Cook, from the band ALABAMA and have dinner (on your own) as a group in Chattanooga before showtime. Estimated return time to Huntsville is 11:00 p.m.

Cost of trip: $115 (includes chartered motorcoach transportation, show ticket and castle tour)

Mail check payable to Steady for Life.

Mail to: Kim Davis, 990 Gilstead Circle, Huntsville, AL 35802

Righteous Brothers tickets and Cook Castle tour tickets are already reserved and must be paid for by the end of April.
