Nashville Spring Fling

Forget your cares and come immerse yourself in the beauty of Spring on Steady for Life's two-day Nashville Spring Fling – May 3rd & 4th. We are calling this “THREE TRIPS IN ONE” because it includes three iconic venues in and around Nashville.

Our first stop is the beautiful, historic Cheekwood Mansion and Gardens in Nashville. Come travel back in time as our knowledgeable docents lead us through 9 rooms of the mansion. Then, take a leisurely stroll through the serene, historic gardens. May is a particularly beautiful and colorful time of the year to visit Cheekwood.

After dinner at Paula Deen's Family Kitchen, we'll enjoy seeing eight or more artists come together to celebrate the past, present, and future of country music. The Grand Ole Opry where acoustics are stellar, and our seats will provide us with a splendid view. Watch the artists step into the historic circle of wood to give us the performance of a lifetime. I dare you not to tap your foot!

On Day 2, following breakfast, we'll board the coach for the Tennessee Renaissance Festival, in Arrington, TN. They say and I quote: “By decree of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth I, all subjects are summoned to the village of Covington Glen for the 38th Annual Tennessee Renaissance Festival this year of our Lord 1588. Join us as we sing, dance, and play as we celebrate in the merry month of May.” If you like to shop for artisans' wares, enjoy song, laughter, jesters, minstrels, jugglers, and magicians...if witnessing a Queen and her court is your cup of tea, the Tennessee Renaissance Festival is for you! If pirates, royal jousts, and a tour of the grounds of Castle Gwynn sound intriguing, you've come to the right place!

So, won't you join us to celebrate Mother's Day, to celebrate Spring, history, art, beautiful gardens, music and merriment?
