Experience the Wonder and Charm of Christmas
Natchez Spirit of Christmas Tour | December 10–12, 2027

Celebrate the season with a three-day journey filled with beautifully decorated historic homes, Southern hospitality, festive music, local shopping, and memorable dining.

Day One: December 10:
6:00 AM. Depart from Mayfair Church (1095 Carl T. Jones Drive, Huntsville)
6:30 AM. Depart from Asbury Church (980 Hughes Road, Madison)
Travel to Meridian for lunch at Weidmann's, Mississippi's oldest continuously operating restaurant. Established in 1870, this local landmark is known for classic Southern comfort food and its long-standing tradition of serving handmade peanut butter crocks at every table. After lunch we will tour the Christmas Trees of Merrehope. When we arrive in Natchez, MS, we will spend two nights at the Hampton Inn & Suites. After checking in, we will enjoy a casual pizza dinner before we begin the Charles Dickens Christmas Tour. (Lunch, Dinner)

Day Two: December 11:
This morning we will enjoy breakfast at our hotel with free time to browse the shops and seasonal attractions of Natchez. Later we will gather for a festive brunch, made possible by Living History Natchez—a collective of passionate homeowners and community stewards dedicated to preserving and sharing the rich, complex heritage, architecture, and cultural legacy of Natchez's historic homes. We will continue the Natchez Charles Dickens Christmas Tour at Fezziwig's Christmas Party, held beneath the trees of historic Memorial Park. There we will enjoy festive music, local vendors, and holiday cheer. You may also purchase local treats and other selections for dinner this evening on your own. We will conclude the evening with Carols by Candlelight, an intimate program of seasonal music presented by Dr. Sadie Goodman inside historic Trinity Episcopal Church. (Breakfast, Lunch)

Day Three: December 12: Natchez, MS, Jackson, MS, and Tuscaloosa, AL
After breakfast at our hotel, we will depart for Tuscaloosa. Enroute, a devotional will be shared during the bus ride. Our journey includes a stop in Jackson, MS, at the spectacular Museum Of Mississippi History. The museum's exhibits take us on a journey through 15,000 years of MS history. Later we will arrive at The Sanctuary Restaurant for our included finale meal inside a beautifully repurposed, century-old church. Here we will enjoy an bistro fare in a warm and inviting seasonal setting. (Breakfast, Dinner)
